

— PRACTICE

The drawing was never the job.
Coordination was.

— WHAT CHANGED

AI produces the first draft

A spec section, a submittal response, a first cut drawing all show up faster now.

— WHAT HASN'T CHANGED

Deciding what matters

Which deviation is real and which stakeholder needs to hear about it now is still a judgment call.

— WHAT HASN'T CHANGED

Keeping consultants aligned

Pointing five consultants the same direction was never a drafting problem.

That coordination work was always the value

It was just buried under hours of production work. AI adoption doesn't remove it, it exposes it.
